

Quotes & Connections

"If you once belonged to and were enslaved and in bondage to Christ-less religion, then you know what a spiritual cattle drive is like. Lots of cattle. A broad 'road' indeed. When you are being driven in either a physical or spiritual cattle drive, the view in front of you is not that glorious or glamorous, is it? All cattle drives look and smell the same."—Greg Albrecht, Letters to My Friends

"Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today. Let us begin."—Mother Teresa

"The root of Christian love is not the will to love, but the faith that one is loved by God. The faith that one is loved by God although unworthy, or rather, irrespective of one's worth."
—Thomas Merton

"Much of my criticism of religion comes about when I see it not only affirming the system of normalcy but teaching folks how to live there comfortably. Such a religion increases our 'stuckness' in the old world... Cheap religion teaches us how to live successfully in a sick system... As a general rule, we need more and more of what doesn't work. If it worked, we wouldn't need to keep increasing the fix."
—Richard Rohr, Everything Belongs
